H & M Hennes & Mauritz AB Full-year report 2025

Fourth quarter (1 September 2025 — 30 November 2025)

- Sales in local currencies increased by 2 percent in the fourth quarter, with 4 percent fewer stores at the end of the quarter compared with the same point in time last year. Converted into SEK, net sales amounted to SEK 59,221 m (62,193). Net sales in SEK were negatively affected by a currency translation effect of around 7 percentage points due to the strengthened Swedish krona.
- Gross profit amounted to SEK 33,084 m (33,942), which corresponds to a gross margin of 55.9 percent (54.6).
- Selling and administrative expenses decreased by 3 percent in local currencies. Converted into SEK these expenses decreased by 9 percent to SEK 26,698 m (29,303).
- Operating profit increased by 38 percent to SEK 6,364 m (4,624), corresponding to an operating margin of 10.7 percent (7.4). An improved customer offering, an improved gross margin and good cost control have contributed to the increase in profit in the quarter.
- The result after tax increased to SEK 4,332 m (2,983[1]), corresponding to SEK 2,72 (1.86[1]) per share.
- Cash flow from operating activities after changes in working capital increased to SEK 8,406 m (6,974).
- The stock-in-trade decreased by 12 percent to SEK 35,427 m (40,348) and the composition of the stock-in-trade is good. Currency adjusted the stock-in-trade decreased by 5 percent compared with the previous year. The stock-in-trade in SEK represented 15.5 percent (17.2) of rolling 12 months sales.

Full-year (1 December 2024 — 30 November 2025)

- In local currencies net sales increased by 2 percent in the financial year 2025. Converted into SEK, the H&M group's net sales amounted to SEK 228,285 m (234,478).
- Gross profit amounted to SEK 121,821 m (125,299). This corresponds to a gross margin of 53.4 percent (53.4).
- Selling and administrative expenses decreased by 4 percent to SEK 103,292 m (107,915). In local currencies these expenses decreased by 1 percent compared with the previous year.
- Operating profit increased to SEK 18,395 m (17,306), corresponding to an operating margin of 8.1 percent (7.4).
- The result after tax increased to SEK 12,085 m (11,584), corresponding to SEK 7.58 (7.21) per share.
- Cash flow from operating activities after changes in working capital amounted to SEK 31,120 m (31,756).
- The H&M group's greenhouse gas emissions in scope 3[2] reduced by approximately 30 percent (24) in 2025 compared to the 2019 baseline according to preliminary figures. The target is to reduce these greenhouse gas emissions by 56 percent no later than 2030, with 2019 as baseline.
- Recently, the H&M group was A-listed by CDP[3] for climate and water, providing further recognition after being ranked as industry leader in sustainability and transparency for both social and environmental issues by several independent organisations, including Stand.earth's Fashion Scorecard and Fashion Revolution's What Fuels Fashion report, in 2025.

- The H&M group's sales in the period 1 December 2025 – 31 January 2026 are expected to decrease by 2 percent in local currencies compared with the same period the previous year. Sales development should be seen in the light of strong sales during the Black Friday week at the end of November, which led to subdued demand in a number of markets in December. In addition, there is a negative calendar effect associated with the Chinese New Year, which this year falls in February.
- CapEx in comparable currency is planned to amount to SEK 9-10 billion for 2026. The investments are mainly allocated to the store portfolio and to tech infrastructure. Following a period of high levels of investment in the supply chain, new logistics solutions in Europe will gradually be deployed in 2026.
- The board of directors is proposing to the 2026 annual general meeting that an ordinary dividend of SEK 7.10 (6.80) per share is paid in two instalments.
- The board of directors is proposing that the 2026 annual general meeting approve a general authorisation allowing the board to buy back the group's own class B shares.

Comments by Daniel Ervér, CEO

Through a strengthened customer offering, good cost control and improved inventory productivity, we continue to take important steps towards all our long-term targets in a challenging environment.

Sales in the fourth quarter increased by 2 percent in local currencies with approximately 4 percent fewer stores during the quarter. Operating profit increased by 38 percent, resulting in an operating margin of 10.7 percent. Performance during the quarter was largely driven by a stronger customer offering, good cost control and improved inventory productivity, as well as external factors that positively affected purchasing costs.

Our work in 2025 has gradually contributed to positive development towards all our long-term targets. The sales trend is positive seen over the year as a whole, and earnings have strengthened in the second half of the year. The gross margin for the full year was at the same level as in the previous year and the operating margin increased to 8.1 percent, compared to 7.4 percent last year. As our climate goals are well integrated into the business, we have reduced our Scope 3[1] CO_2 emissions by around 30 percent compared with the 2019 baseline, according to preliminary figures. This means that we are well on the way to achieving our science-based target of a 56 percent reduction by 2030, in line with the 1.5°C target. During the quarter we received further recognition for our work within sustainability and transparency when CDP[2] A-listed the H&M group for climate and water.

This progress reflects determined efforts in our most important areas, with a focus on strengthening the product offering, the customer experience and our brands. Within the product offering, more efficient purchasing with shorter decision paths, an enhanced ability to quickly capture trends, improvements in the supply chain and closer cooperation with our suppliers have overall contributed to a more relevant customer offering and better inventory efficiency.

Work to further strengthen the customer experience during the year has included updating our digital store globally while at the same time increasing the pace of upgrades to our physical stores, with improvements in technology, layout and presentation.

Both H&M and COS presented their main collections for autumn and winter at the fashion weeks in London and New York respectively, which among other things created positive engagement with great reach in social media. We have also entered into various creative external collaborations. For example, H&M launched an appreciated design collaboration with Glenn Martens and announced a collaboration with Stella McCartney for 2026.

In 2026 we are continuing to strengthen the foundation for continued profitable and sustainable growth. The focus is on what is most important to our customers – to always offer the best value for money through H&M's business concept fashion and quality at the best price in a sustainable way. The start of the new year has been marked by continued geopolitical and economic uncertainty, which underlines the importance of an efficient organisation with short decision paths that operates close to the customer and has a high degree of flexibility and continued good cost control.

We are expanding through our stores and digital channels. Mostly in growth markets – including Brazil and other parts of Latin America. We are continuing to optimise the store portfolio. For 2026 we estimate that the sales effect from the store optimisation will turn around to become slightly positive. In addition to our investments in new markets, new stores and an upgraded customer experience in a large share of our existing stores, we are also investing in the tech infrastructure. More data-driven decision-making and increased use of AI are improving our accuracy and giving us more tools for expressing creativity, thereby further strengthening our customer offering.

We are on the right track. It is our employees who make this possible. With creativity, commitment and shared values, we work every day to offer fashion, quality and sustainability at a price that is accessible to many people.

Sales

Sales in local currencies increased by 2 percent in the fourth quarter, with 4 percent fewer stores at the end of the quarter compared with the same point in time last year. Converted into SEK, net sales amounted to SEK 59,221 m (62,193). Net sales in SEK were negatively affected by a currency translation effect of around 7 percentage points due to the strengthened Swedish krona.

As more stores are upgraded and new stores are opened, the H&M group's long-term position is strengthened further. At the beginning of the fourth quarter there were 180 fewer stores than at the same point in time last year and at the end of the quarter there were 152 fewer stores than at the same point in time last year. The optimisation of the store portfolio has had a somewhat negative impact on sales in 2025 due to store closures and rebuilds. For 2026, however, the sales effect from store optimisation is expected to be slightly positive.

For the financial year net sales increased by 2 percent in local currencies with 4 percent fewer stores at the end of the financial year. Converted into SEK, the H&M group's net sales amounted to SEK 228,285 m (234,478).

Online continued to perform well. Just over 30 percent of sales takes place online.

Net sales for portfolio brands increased in the fourth quarter by 2 percent in local currencies. Converted into SEK, sales decreased by 4 percent. Sales for portfolio brands, excluding Monki, increased by 5 percent in local currencies during the fourth quarter 2025.

Net sales for portfolio brands in the financial year increased by 1 percent in local currencies and decreased by 2 percent in SEK. Sales for portfolio brands, excluding Monki, increased by 4 percent in local currencies during the full year 2025.

During the year Monki have been integrated into the Weekday stores and at weekday.com. By the end of the fourth quarter all Monki stores have been closed.

The H&M group's sales in the period 1 December 2025 – 31 January 2026 are expected to decrease by 2 percent in local currencies compared with the same period the previous year. Sales development should be seen in the light of strong sales during the Black Friday week at the end of November, which led to subdued demand in a number of markets in December. In addition, there is a negative calendar effect associated with the Chinese New Year, which this year falls in February.

Gross profit and gross margin

Gross profit and gross margin are a result of many factors, internal as well as external, and are mostly affected by the decisions that the H&M group takes in line with its strategy to always have the best combination of fashion, quality, price and sustainability.

Gross profit amounted to SEK 33,084 m (33,942) for the fourth quarter, corresponding to a gross margin of 55.9 percent (54.6). The improvement work in the supply chain and external factors that had a positive influence on purchasing costs strengthened the gross margin in the fourth quarter. The cost of markdowns in relation to sales was marginally higher than in the corresponding quarter last year.

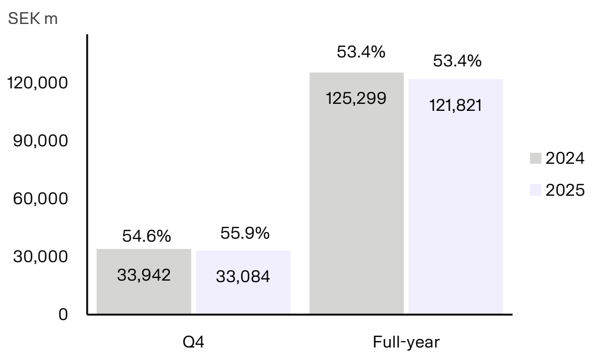
For the financial year gross profit amounted to SEK 121,821 m (125,299), corresponding to a gross margin of 53.4 percent (53.4).

For the goods being sold in the first quarter of 2026, the overall effect of external factors is assessed to be somewhat positive compared with the corresponding period the previous year but less positive than the effect on the gross margin in the fourth quarter, partly because the impact of tariff costs is expected to increase further.

When the Swedish krona strengthens there is a negative translation effect on the gross margin. This is because a higher proportion of revenues than costs in the Group are in foreign currency. In the fourth quarter this resulted in a somewhat negative effect on the gross margin. Based on prevailing exchange rates, the currency translation effect on gross margin is expected to be slightly more negative in the first quarter of 2026 than in the fourth quarter of 2025.

The cost of markdowns as a percentage of sales in the first quarter 2026 is expected to be at the same level as in the corresponding quarter the previous year.

Gross profit and gross margin

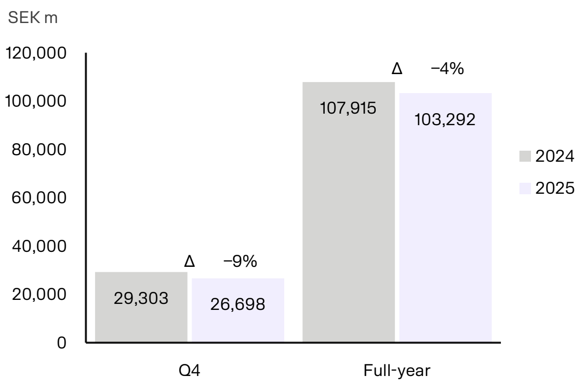


Selling and administrative expenses

Good cost control has countered continued inflationary pressures in the cost base.
Selling and administrative expenses in the fourth quarter decreased by 9 percent to SEK 26,698 m (29,903). In local currencies these expenses decreased by 3 percent.

For the financial year, selling and administrative expenses decreased by 4 percent to SEK 103,292 m (107,915). In local currencies these expenses decreased by 1 percent compared with the previous year.

Selling and administrative expenses

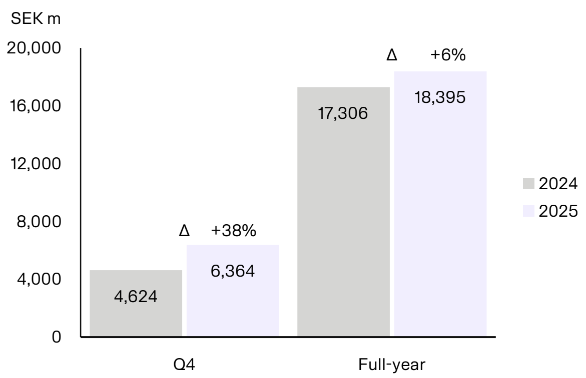


Operating profit and operating margin

Operating profit in the fourth quarter increased by 38 percent to SEK 6,364 m (4,624), corresponding to an operating margin of 10.7 percent (7.4). An improved customer offering, an improved gross margin and good cost control have contributed to the increase in profit in the quarter.

Operating profit for the financial year 2025 increased to SEK 18,395 m (17,306), corresponding to an operating margin of 8.1 percent (7.4).

Operating profit



Stock-in-trade

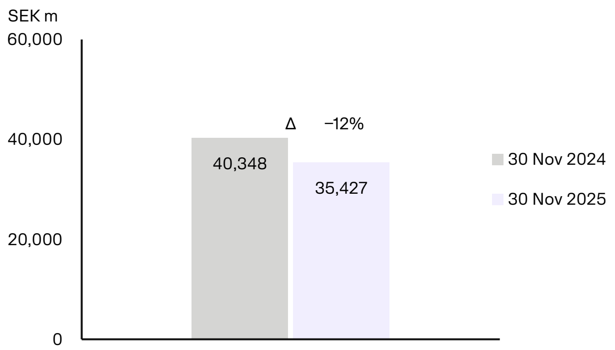
The stock-in-trade decreased by 12 percent to SEK 35,427 m (40,348). Currency adjusted the stock-in-trade decreased by 5 percent compared with the previous year.

The composition of the stock-in-trade is good.

The stock-in-trade in SEK represented 15.5 percent (17.2) of rolling 12 months sales.

The investments in the supply chain and the integration of the sales channels continue. A higher share of product purchases in current season, and a more efficient and more flexible supply chain, create the conditions for improved stock availability for the customer even with a lower volume of stock. During 2026 new warehouses in Europe will gradually be taken into use, thereby securing growth capacity, good stock availability and flexibility between the sales channels. The company continues to strengthen its ability to manage disruptions in the supply chain.

Stock-in-trade



Expansion through integrated channels

Expansion is taking place with a focus on increased omnichannel sales. Customers want to be inspired and have products available so that they can shop where, when and how they choose – in the stores, on the brands' own websites, on digital marketplaces and on social media. Physical and digital stores continue to be the largest area for investments in the business in 2026 to provide an even more inspiring shopping experience. The H&M group works continuously to adapt the store portfolio based on customers' behaviour in each market and is contractually able to renegotiate or exit around a third of leases each year. During 2026 work continues to update a large part of the stores through improvements in layout, presentation and tech, to further strengthen the customer experience and the interaction between our channels.

The optimisation of the store portfolio continues with store openings, closures and rebuilds, thereby further strengthening the H&M group's long-term position. Overall this had a slightly negative sales impact in 2025. In 2026, however, the sales effect is expected to be slightly positive. For 2026 the plan is to open around 80 new stores, while around 160 stores are planned for closure. Openings are planned in all regions and most of the openings will be in growth markets. In addition to this, our digital expansion into new markets and channels continues.

The company is continuing its expansion in Latin America. H&M opened in Brazil at the end of August, with its first store as well as online, closely followed by a further three stores that opened in the fourth quarter of 2025. Seven more stores in Brazil, with the first in Rio de Janeiro, are so far contracted to open in 2026. Paraguay will become a new H&M market in 2026 and H&M will also open its first store in Malta via franchise in the first half of 2026. H&M will open online in Ukraine during the first quarter of 2026.

& Other Stories and Arket were launched on Zalando and COS opened its first store in India in October 2025. Arket will open its first store in Lithuania in 2026.

Store count and markets by brand

As at 30 November 2025 the H&M group had 4,101 (4,253) stores, i.e. the total number of stores has decreased by 152 stores compared with the same point in time the previous year, which corresponds to a reduction of around 4 percent. During the financial year 92 (88) new stores have opened and 244 (204) stores have closed. A total of 253 (258) of the group's stores are operated by franchise partners.

1. Afound had 7 online markets as at 30 November 2024.
2. Concept stores. H&M HOME is also available through shop-in-shop in 471 H&M stores.

COS, Monki, Weekday, & Other Stories and ARKET offer Global selling which enables customers in around 70 additional markets to shop online. The exact number of markets per brand that have this service varies.

Cash flow, working capital and financing

Cash flow and liquidity

Cash flow from operating activities in the financial year amounted to SEK 31,120 m (31,756). Compared with the previous year, cash flow was positively affected mainly by lower stock-in-trade and negatively mainly by tax payments and lower operating liabilities.

The H&M group's liquidity remains very good. As at 30 November 2025 cash and cash equivalents amounted to SEK 20,908 m (17,340). In addition, the group has undrawn credit facilities of SEK 19,680 m (18,416). The total liquidity buffer, i.e. cash and cash equivalents plus undrawn credit facilities, amounted to SEK 40,588 m (35,756).

Operating working capital

Operating working capital changed during the financial year by SEK -550 m (1,930) to SEK 21,012 m (21,562), mainly as a result of improved inventory productivity.

Financing

Net debt including lease liabilities in relation to EBITDA amounted to 1.5 (1.5) with a net cash position of SEK 233 m (3,223). Debt levels are within the target range of 1.0 – 2.0 for the capital structure target Net debt/EBITDA.

Interest-bearing liabilities in the form of commercial papers, bonds and loans from credit institutions amounted to SEK 20,675 m (14,117) as at 30 November 2025. A EUR 500 m bond with a maturity of eight years and a coupon rate of 3.4 percent was issued in the fourth quarter within the framework of the H&M group's Euro Medium Term Note (EMTN) programme in order to secure long-term financing at attractive terms. The average maturity of interest-bearing liabilities was 5.2 (5.3) years as at 30 November 2025.

A maturity analysis of outstanding interest-bearing liabilities and undrawn credit facilities as at 30 November 2025 is given in the table below.

Operating working capital SEK m	2025-11-30	2024-11-30

Tax

The group's tax rate for the financial year 2025 was 25.2 percent (24.9). The final tax rate depends on, among other things, the results of the group's various companies, the corporate tax rates in each country, non-deductible costs and tax expense relating to previous years.

The group's tax rate for the financial year 2026 is expected to be 25 – 26 percent based on known circumstances. For the first three quarters of the year a tax rate of 25 percent (25) will be used to calculate tax expense on the earnings in each period excluding result from investments in associated companies and joint ventures.

Share buybacks

During the period 26 June – 17 July 2025 the group repurchased shares as authorised by the 2025 annual general meeting in order to secure delivery of class B shares within the framework of the company's long-term incentive programme (LTIP 2025). A total of 1,100,000 class B shares were repurchased for a total sum of approximately SEK 149 m.

A SEK 1 billion share buyback programme was initiated on 21 November 2025 in order to distribute surplus liquidity and thereby adjust the company's capital structure. As at 30 November 2025, 953,000 class B shares in H&M had been repurchased for a total amount of approximately SEK 165 m. The share buyback programme was completed on 23 January 2026 and a total of 5,618,372 class B shares were repurchased; see separate press release issued on 26 January 2026. The board of directors proposes that the 2026 annual general meeting resolve to cancel the shares that were repurchased for the purpose of distributing surplus liquidity and thereby adjusting the company's capital structure.

As at 30 November 2025 H&M owned 2,053,000 own class B shares. The total number of shares in H&M, including treasury shares was 1,604,491, 375 as at 30 November 2025 and the number of outstanding shares, excluding treasury shares, was 1,602,438,375.

Employees

In an industry where customer interaction is crucial, the H&M group's employees are its greatest asset. Through shared values, each day the employees contribute skills, commitment and a sense of service – and create products and customer experiences that make a difference. The H&M group creates customer value through a clear purpose, a common direction and the ability to adapt swiftly to a changing environment. Key elements in the development of the organisation include ensuring short decision-making paths, effective collaboration and a culture in which employees can rely on each other's knowledge and capabilities.

The average number of employees in the group as at 30 November 2025, converted into full-time positions, was 94,744 (96,457), of which 8,509 (9,525) were employed in Sweden.

The year's increase in profit means that SEK 20 m (236) has been allocated in the fourth quarter to the H&M Incentive Program (HIP), which is for all employees. The basis for allocations to HIP is 10 percent of the increase in the company's profit after tax and before any allocation to HIP, between two successive financial years. The programme was initiated in 2010 by Stefan Persson and family through a donation of H&M shares worth around SEK 1 billion. For further information concerning HIP please refer to the company's annual and sustainability report.

Current quarter

The H&M group's sales in the period 1 December 2025 – 31 January 2026 are expected to decrease by 2 percent in local currencies compared with the same period the previous year. Sales development should be seen in the light of strong sales during the Black Friday week at the end of November, which led to subdued demand in a number of markets in December. In addition, there is a negative calendar effect associated with the Chinese New Year, which this year falls in February.

The cost of markdowns as a percentage of sales in the first quarter 2026 is expected to be on par with the corresponding quarter the previous year.

The company is closely monitoring developments in global trade and trade restrictions. With good flexibility in the supply chain and through the pricing of the customer offering there are opportunities to adapt the business to changed conditions.

Capital structure

The H&M group advocates a conservative leverage ratio, aiming for a strong capital structure with strong liquidity and financial flexibility. It is essential that, as in the past, expansion and investments can proceed with continued freedom of action. The capital structure is defined as Net debt in relation to EBITDA. Including IFRS 16 effects it should be within the range 1.0–2.0 x EBITDA over time. As at 30 November 2025 Net debt/EBITDA including IFRS 16 effects was 1.5 (1.5) with a financial net cash of SEK 233 m (3,223).

Dividend policy

The board of directors' intention is for the H&M group to continue to provide shareholders with a good return while ensuring that growth and investments in the business can proceed with a continued strong financial position and freedom of action. Based on this, the board of directors has proposed a dividend policy stating that the ordinary dividend over time is to exceed 50 percent of profit after tax and additionally that identified surplus liquidity – taking into consideration the capital structure target and investment requirements – can be distributed to shareholders through an extra dividend or a buyback programme.

Proposed dividend

The board of directors is proposing to the 2026 annual general meeting that a dividend of SEK 7.10 (6.80) per share is paid. The dividend will be paid in cash, split into two instalments. The first payment of SEK 3.55 will be made in May and the second payment of SEK 3.55 will be made in November. The board's proposed record dates are 7 May 2026 and 5 November 2026. If the annual general meeting approves the board's proposal, the dividend is expected to be paid out on 12 May 2026 and 10 November 2026.

Proposed authorisation to allow share buybacks

The board of directors is proposing that the 2026 annual general meeting approve a general authorisation allowing the board to buy back the group's own class B shares in the period up to the 2027 annual general meeting. This general authorisation is, among other things, one of the tools for the board to use if surplus liquidity is identified.

Annual general meeting 2026

The 2026 annual general meeting will be held on Tuesday 5 May 2026 at 15:00 CEST in the Erling Persson Hall, Aula Medica, Karolinska Institutet in Solna.

Annual and sustainability report 2025

The annual and sustainability report and the corporate governance report are expected to be published on 26 March 2026 on hmgroup.com. The documents will also be available at the company's head office.

Targets

The H&M group has three long-term targets: long-term sales growth of at least 10 percent per year, an operating margin that exceeds 10 percent and a 56 percent reduction in greenhouse gas emissions* no later than 2030, with 2019 as a baseline. The company is focused on unlocking the growth potential of the group's brands, with a particular focus on strengthening H&M. This means that non-organic growth and growth through new business models are being given lower priority in the short to medium term.

* Refers to science-based targets for own operations (scope 1 and 2) and for the company's entire value chain (scope 3) and excludes the use of sold products.

Risks and uncertainties

Risks may be due to events in the outside world and affect a certain sector or market, or they may be associated with the group's own business. The H&M group carries out regular risk analysis for both operational and financial risks. Operational risks are mainly associated with the business and the external risks that affect the group. Business decisions determine whether action is to be taken to reduce the likelihood of the risk in question occurring and if so, to what extent. Business decisions also determine the extent to which the consequences of a risk that has occurred may be mitigated.

There are external risks and uncertainties affecting the H&M group that are related to the shift in the industry, fashion, competitors, logistics resources, information security and cyber security, sustainability issues, weather, macroeconomics and geopolitical events, foreign currencies, taxes, customs duty, and various regulations and ordinances, but also in connection with expansion into new markets, the launch of new concepts and how the brands are managed. More detailed information concerning the financial risks is given in the H&M group's annual and sustainability report.

Note 1. Accounting principles

The group applies International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and interpretations by the IFRS Interpretations Committee as adopted by the EU. This report has been prepared according to IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting, the Swedish Financial Reporting Board's Recommendation RFR 1 Supplementary Rules for Consolidated Financial Statements and the Swedish Annual Accounts Act.

The parent company applies the Swedish Annual Accounts Act and the Swedish Financial Reporting Board's recommendation RFR 2 Accounting for Legal Entities, which essentially involves applying IFRS.

The accounting principles and calculation methods applied in this report are unchanged from those used in the preparation of the annual and sustainability report and consolidated financial statements for 2024. No new or revised IFRS standards or interpretations applied from 1 December 2024 have had any significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

For a more detailed description of the accounting principles applied to the group and the parent company in this interim report, see the notes of the annual and sustainability report for the 2024 financial year.

Note 2. Financial instruments

The H&M group's financial instruments consist mainly of shares and interests, accounts receivable, other receivables, cash and cash equivalents, accounts payable, interest-bearing securities and liabilities, and currency derivatives.

Measurement principles and classification of financial instruments are unchanged from the information disclosed in note 24 in the annual and sustainability report for 2024.

Shares are measured at fair value, either through profit or loss or through other comprehensive income. Where holdings of shares are assessed to be strategic, the H&M group has chosen to recognise changes in value in other comprehensive income.

Since the IPO in September 2025 the value of the holding in Klarna has been based on the share price, which is a level 1 input according to IFRS 13, and the fair value amounts to SEK 499 m (964) as at 30 November 2025.

The value of other shares and interests based on level 3 inputs according to IFRS 13 amounts in total to SEK 1,421 m (2,065) as at 30 November 2025, the largest investments being Sheertex at SEK 163 m (573), Instabee at SEK 153 m (188) and Colorifix at SEK 143 m (163). The effect of measurement of the group's other shares and interests is reported in other comprehensive income and amounts to SEK –160 m (275) for the fourth quarter.

Currency derivatives are measured at fair value based on level 2 inputs in the IFRS 13 hierarchy. As at 30 November 2025 forward contracts with a positive market value amount to SEK 503 m (1,224), reported under other current receivables. Forward contracts with a negative market value amount to SEK 358 m (665), which is recognised in other current liabilities.

Other financial assets and liabilities are measured at amortised cost. Measurement at fair value would decrease the group's liabilities to credit institutions by around SEK 200 m. The decrease is due to general interest rate increases since debt was issued. The fair values of other financial instruments are assessed to be approximately equal to their book values.
